Recommended by my instructor. Looks good, the songs look decent for beginner level. It also has capability to make the songs more complicated if you want to, by adding chords, guitar, etc. This book does not come with CD. If you want the book + CD it's $15, or buy the CD separately for $10. I am giving it 3 stars because it does not mention anywhere that the CD does not come with it. It should have been sold within the same item listing, so you can pick just the book, just the CD, or book + CD.

I was disappointed to find out the cd wasn't included. After an exercise, it will say , 'play track 3', but there is no track 3! However, this will be a fun book to work through, to break up the monotony of twinkle twinkle from the other books I'm working through.. so 3 stars.

This is a great book for the early intermediate student who wants to learn some fiddle tunes -- and also a good resource for the professional wanting to add a few to repertory. The tunes come from many nationalities. None use position work, though the later ones get a bit tricky and have page turns. It's not a book for serious ethno research, but just a good library book for the studio. The duet accompaniment is great for helping students be steady and sounds good. Some of these come with a CD, though this one didn't.

Loved the fiddle tunes in here!

I purchased this for my 11 yr old son who has been playing violin for the past year in school. He asked his teacher about music another class was playing and it came from this book so naturally he wanted it. Started playing as soon as the book arrived in the mail. I love the sound of music playing in the house when I'm trying to just get housework done or dinner ready. Sweet.

Got this specifically for the CD - should have read the reviews. IT DOES NOT COME WITH CD!!!!

I bought this to use with my students, and it's so fun. The tunes are easy and fun, but sound cool enough that the students love playing them over and over.

Exactly the book my daughter needed, second book in the series. The price is outstanding and saved me money! Thank you
