Under Fire: Diary Of An Israeli Commander On The Battlefield

Synopsis

Roi and Yoni fought bravely side by side as commander and soldier, as fellow officers, and as friends. This amazing personal account embodies the spirit of battle and love for fellow human beings, for Israel, and for its heritage. -Shoshanna and Aharon, parents of Major Roi Klein In Under Fire, Lieutenant Colonel (Reserves) Yoni Chetboun relates a mosaic of moments from his service as a commander during one of the most complex periods in the State of Israel's security. The drama reached its height at the Battle of Bint Jbeil in the 2006 Lebanon War, in which eight soldiers and commanders fell. One was Major Roi Klein, who jumped on a grenade to save his soldiers. For his performance and bravery in this battle, Chetboun was awarded a Chief of Staff citation. He describes here the sensations and thoughts racing through the mind of a commander under fire who bears responsibility for the lives of his soldiers. Under Fire is the story of soldiers and their personal sacrifices. Chetboun arrived at his own engagement party with camouflage paint still on his face, and his new wife would spend her first Passover as a married woman alone in their new home, while he spent it in the heart of Ramallah, four meters from Palestinian Authority Chairman Yassir Arafat's office. Yet, avows Chetboun, this is the way it should be: soldiers on the front so that citizens can live peacefully at home. Chetboun also articulates a clear vision of the foundational security concepts necessary for defeating fundamentalist terrorism. Incisive and inspirational, this is a must-read for anyone concerned about the situation of the world today.

Lieutenant colonel (res.) Yoni Chetboun served as an officer and a commander in the elite Egoz unit of the IDF. He was awarded the Chief of Staff's medal for his actions in battle during the Second Lebanon War. From 2013 to 2015, he was the Deputy Speaker of the Knesset and a member of the Foreign Affairs and Defense Committee and the Education Committee. Founder and CEO of the consulting firm Kanaf Strategy, he is a sought-after lecturer on the topic of decision making in extraordinary circumstances.

It is important to hear from and about people who exhibit Mesirof Nefesh on behalf of Am Yisrael. We should learn from their example.
