Customer Reviews

Wonderful book, lots of history as well as description of these dolls. Arrived early, was as described, well packed, would order from this seller again.

This is an o.k. book. Seems so many of these Ginny reference books do not agree on input, pictures, and information. Makes it difficult.

I use these books as a reference to selling on ebay. I found many of the pictures too small, not clear and not enough information given about the doll and outfit.

This is an excellent reference book written specifically about Vogue Ginny Dolls. It also includes the Vogue family: Jill, Jeff, and Ginnette. The history of how these dolls were created, and changed. The photos are terrific. There are different photos that aren't included in other books with explanations about the different tags and how they indicate a time period when the clothes were made. This doll was begun in the 40's, hit a peak in the 50's and is still made today. Quite collectible vintage doll.

The good part of this book is that some outfits are shown in a nice sized picture. I did not like that parts of this book are the same as some other books. I don't know which came first. So all the duplication is very annoying.

Seller is great. Not as useful as I had hoped. Photos are in black and white as well as color Book as described. Thank you.

The book arrived on time. The price was reasonable as it was originally 30 bucks according to the inside jacket. It smelled new and cracked open like new. Seller SAID it was new. Great photos of dolls in order of year made. Lots of clothes for the dolls pictured. Happy with the product.
