Kathleen Bostrom has been an ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church (USA) since 1983. She and her husband, Greg, have served as Co-Pastors of the Wildwood Presbyterian Church, Wildwood, IL, since 1991. Kathy earned a Master of Arts in Christian Education and a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey; and a Doctor of Ministry in Preaching degree from McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago. Kathy and Greg have three children: Christopher, Amy, and David.

This book was given to us as a gift, but we love it so much, we've bought a copy for every Christian baby we know! The illustrations are beautiful and details. Our 12-month-old loves to point to the dogs, cats, birds, etc. in the periphery of some pages. The cadence of the poems is great and the rhymes fun. Usually, when we read it to our baby, she immediately signs for us to read it again. It's one of those books that doesn't get old for kids or adults!

A precious book. It doesn't have the scripture notes in the end like the hardback books do. I think a couple readers complained that they didn't like that the book seemed to condone naughtiness ("God loves you even when you are angry" I think one page said or "even when you are naughty" something like that). This is a toddler book, not a sermon, meant to convey how much God loves us. How would we ever have been given the gift of Jesus if God turned his love off when we sinned? He loves us in spite of our sin. God does love us when we are angry - he might not love the anger itself. Gave this to a mom as part of a shower gift. She was so happy to have something to help start conversations about God with her children. I guess it is easier in some homes than others to bring God into the conversation.

My grand daughters love the Little Blessings books. They memorize them and read them to me. That is impressive for non school age kids.

Love the truths in these little blessings books. My 3 year old practically has them memorized when we read them, she finishes the phrases

My favorite gift to give to a newborn child along with a card. It's an adorable book because it's a short story written in rhyme. Great first book for a child, it's little so easy for small hands to hold book and be read to. Child can easily "mimick" reading story because it's a rhyme. Not preachy or over the top. A simple message that states "No matter who you are, God loves you." I always inscribe the first page with the baby's birth date and a little message to him or her that says "God loves you just as you are!" Shouldn't everyone know that?

Kathleen Bostrom is a wonderful children's author. She explains Christian faith in terms children understand. All of her Little Blessings contributions are brilliantly done.

This is one of my favorite books to read to my children. It teaches children that God loves them just the way they are and how he made them all different. Very Sweet Book!

This book is so cute! I bought it for my 2 year old niece. I will be buying another one soon for a friend.
