Challenge Your Brain Math & Logic Puzzles (Mensa)

Synopsis

Give your brain a workout on the type of brainteasers that challenge the best solvers at the World Puzzle Championships. They're tough, but fun, and the feeling of satisfaction you get when you succeed is simply unbeatable. Some of the puzzles are oldies but goodies, like battleships--and its many variants--where you search for a fleet hidden within a grid. In "Eminent Domain," try to determine which blanks cells are owned by the numbered ones. For "Hex Loops," locate a path that travels through adjacent hexagons: the trick is, it has to end where it started, and the lines can't touch or cross. From Snaky Tiles to Spiral Galaxies, these Mensa-level conundrums will get your mind in shape.

Michael Rios was born in Chicago, Illinois, and has spent most of his life solving and constructing puzzles for fun. He is an IT Systems Engineer with a penchant for Linux and open source software. Mike has worked in the telecommunications and financial industries and has been a government contractor at a national lab. Mike enjoys tabletop/hobby board gaming, playing racquetball, recreational programming, and spending time with his family. Mike's first published work was at age 12. It was a response to a Games Magazine puzzle based on Burma Shave signs; he mailed five letters on five consecutive days to the magazine, which then printed those letters in scrambled order as a puzzle. Since then he has been published in Games Magazine and GamesWorld of Puzzles, and has authored or co-authored many variety puzzlebooks and sudoku books. ã ã Michael currently lives in Oswego, Illinois, with his wife Theresa, his children Becca and Peter, and Kiki the Quasi-Wonder dog.

Very very challenging questions :) Sometimes I have to spend time to know how to do it. My son who loved such challenging questions enjoys doing them. He now spends less time on video games and does these puzzles more. I really like it and definitely recommend to parents to want their kids to do some brain exercises as this book will make them to think.

I love logic puzzles, but many logic puzzle books stick to one specific type of game. This book had a great variety of puzzles, which made it much more fun to work through! I would highly recommend this book to anyone who likes a good mental challenge.

I bought this for my son, I took a look inside and closed it ha. But over Thanksgiving his grandpa explained some things and my little genius wouldn't put it down. Now I need one for his grandpa ;).

I really liked it because it starts out with simpler exercises to motivate you to move forward. Practical format with wire binding and enough space to do quick calcs on the margins. I found it very engaging and a surprisingly relaxing exercise.

An excellent book for those that want to get away from the daily rat-race and engulf their mind deep into logic and math. It will take time, but not a moment will be wasted and before you know you will have forget those things that bother us every day and look forward to another puzzle; another page.

Very enjoyable. Many hours of pleasant reading.

Challenging and fun

I gave this as a gift to my grandson who is a whiz in math.
