Customer Reviews

If you are going to London, whether for the first time or a very frequent visitor like us, this is a must. We discovered so many new places that we would never have found without it. Totally worth it.

The Red Guide lists hotels and restaurants. I liked it better when things were laid out in more of an alphabetical manner than the location based style used today. I also miss the red ribbon that used to allow you to mark you place. Still it is a nice listing of what is available.

A very usable format that made it easy to look for restaurants in particular neighborhoods or for particular types of cuisine. The ratings were reliable.

very good
