Setting The Mood: Simple Steps To Write Better Erotic Love Scenes

Synopsis

“Setting the Mood: Simple Steps to Write Better Erotic Love Scenes,” by erotica and romance author Eve Adams, is a how-to guide that teaches you how to not only put yourself in the mood to write hot love scenes that will help sell your book and establish your name as an author, but will also help you feel more confident about the entire process. Everyone wants to read the hottest love scenes from the best new authors, but what goes into creating those scenes for readers? Are you terrified of what you might do wrong when starting out? Do you sit and stare at the page blankly hoping for inspiration when you get to the hotter parts of your story? You are not alone. With this simple guide you can get past your fears and let your writing flow. This relatively short book of 12,388 words has a formula you can follow to get those sexy words down on paper and start feeling your sex scenes both before and as you write them. Inside you will also find advice on how to use your five senses to create more authentic imagery in your work, giving your readers what your cover and blurb promises them, writing what you are comfortable reading, and more. Get writing those sultry scenes today!
