Isfahan: Pearl Of Persia

Synopsis

Once one of the largest cities in the world, Isfahan is an ancient metropolis that sits across timeless trade routes. It became the glittering capital of Iran's greatest dynasty, the Safavids, during the 16th century. Shah Abbas I (1587-1629) in particular helped to transform it into a city rich in art, cultural wonders, and architecture rich in form and surface decoration. Reprinted for the first time in 40 years, this astounding survey provides a history of the city from its earliest days up through the early 20th century and features dozens of photographs, engravings, and examples of the tilework and architecture from across the centuries that make Isfahan the cultural crown of Iran.

Customer Reviews

Wilfrid Blunt (1901-1987) was an art historian and educationalist, and the author of Linnaeus: The Compleat Naturalist.

It's a concise history of this great city. The paper quality is fine. The photographs both old and new are beautiful
