Customer Reviews

Book is in vey good condition, recipes are basic

I love this book! I purchased it many tears ago and it got lost in a move. i purchased this one to replace it. I've made several cookies out of it and they are all good. My favorite is the sweet ravioli!

Delicious cookies. Have been using this book for twenty years and have always gotten requests for this book. i have never made a bad cookie with this book.

The real thing. You will be making authentic tasting and consistencies of a variety of classic items.

great recepies

Have had this book forever and all the pages are dirty from use - had to buy another copy for my daughter!

Her directions are more complex than need be. Some good recipes, particularly in the Scandinavian chapter.

I have made approximately half of the cookies in this book. I haven't found a bad recipe yet. Most of the cookies are exceptional. The directions are long but very detailed so even the most difficult cookie can be made to perfection. Some items can be difficult to find but if you plan ahead most can be purchased or improvised. I own many many cookbooks and cookie recipes but this is the one I use for almost all of my Christmas Cookies. My large family and many grandchildren all have a favorite from this book and ask for them every year. The favorites are so many that I now make about four new ones from this book and the rest are old favorites. The recipe for poinsettia cookies is a fun family project and one year my grandchildren made them for aunties and teachers. Just one sets off a plate of cookies for gift giving. I take pride in fancy holiday cookies with good flavors and this book has it all. Even cookies that sound a bit strange turn out to be great tasting from this book. Great photos also. If you only buy one cookie book, buy this one.
