Australia, New Zealand And Tahiti DIY (Travel On Your Own Book 1)

Synopsis

Traveling on your own might seem to be daunting, but armed with the right information is really quite easy. In this book you will be able to get enough information so that you can plan your own trip to Australia, New Zealand and Tahiti. There are a lot of advantages to traveling on your own, some of them include meeting locals, stopping wherever you like and when you like, as well as customizing your vacation to do things you really like to do. This book is written as a journal of the author's experience. Details are given on websites of places visited and companies used saving you many hours of research. Since the author has actually used the companies recommended you do not have to experiment and take unnecessary risks with your vacation. Come on a journey to the South Pacific and learn practical and useful information that will help you plan your vacation. The author of this book is a professional traveller who has travelled around the world as well as has led many tours. She knows what is like to travel on a budget and loves to find great deals that stretch the vacation dollar.
