Sophisticated Sophomore (Love 101 Book 2)

Synopsis

Laila Jackson survived freshman year at Lee University, a historically black college and university in Tallahassee, Florida. Now summer is over, and she's signed up for another grueling course load. Luckily, Laila has the perfect distraction from her studies! She and her boyfriend, Chris, are closer than ever. Together, the two of them survived the machinations of Chris's unstable ex-girlfriend, Courtney—but she's not done with them yet. While attending a football game with Lee University's rival, A&T, Laila is surprised by the appearance of an old acquaintance. Throughout high school, Laila always had a crush on Josh, the brother of her best friend, Tanya. She thought he never saw her as more than Tanya's friend, but their chance meeting changes her mind! Suddenly, Laila is in the middle of a love triangle. Josh is finally interested in being more than just friends, but she and Chris have worked hard to build a solid relationship. Courtney's meddling further complicates Laila's relationships. In this second book in the Love 101 series, Laila faces difficult new challenges. She's no longer a naïve freshman, but she still has a lot to learn when it comes to matters of the heart.

Customer Reviews

This book had me all in my emotions. I LOVE reading about Laila and her love interest and his pure, genuine love for her. It also gives a true and authentic HBCU experience that is realistic. Every chapter is relatable.
