Leaving America-a Practical Guide To Retirement In Panama

Synopsis

Are you good and tired of the high cost of living in America? This is a can do book about moving to Panama. This is a book about reconsidering your current life in America and getting a better bang for your buck. It is also a book about my personal journey here. There is much information and insight on how to consider your retirement options in a country that is cheaper, and has many very attractive retirement options, tropical weather, and very friendly people. Panama is a truly international country that has an incredible public transportation system, a variety of climatic zones and one of the best retirement incentive programs available in the world.
