Congratulations ã¢â,¬Â! You're Gifted!: Discovering Your God-Given Shape To Make A Difference In The World (invert)

Synopsis

Are you confused about who you are or where you're headed? Does your life seem cluttered and chaotic? Do you wish you understood God's plan and purpose for your life? Do you want to uncover your God-given strengths? If you said yes to any of these questions, you've come to the right book. The first step is to know who you are. Remember, you're a child of God - created by him with your own unique heart, abilities, personality, and spiritual gifts. God brought all those elements together in you so that you could serve him and the world in your own unique way. Inside the pages of this book, you'll discover the place where your God-given passions and strengths intersect, and you'll find the way you're designed to serve. With interactive exercises and questions for you to answer, you'll learn more about your: Spiritual Gifts Heart Abilities Personality Experiences Understanding each of these areas of your life, you'll begin to see who you are and how you're designed to serve. You'll stop serving because that's what you're "supposed" to do, and start serving from the depths of your heart and soul because it's what you were created to do.

Doug Fields has been a leader in youth ministry for over 30 years. In addition to being a youth pastor at two churches for 11 and 20 years, Doug is the founder of Simply Youth Ministry, the co-founder of Downloadyouthministry.com, the author of more than 50 books, and is currently working with Youth Specialties & Azusa Pacific University (HomeWord's Center for Youth/Family). More information about Doug is available at www.dougfields.com. Erik Rees is the chairman of the Jessie Rees Foundation, better known as "Jessie's daddy" to the 500,000 social media fans he talks to weekly. Through Erik's leadership, Jessie's mission to encourage every kid fighting cancer to "Never Ever Give Up" is becoming a reality. He and his wife, Stacey, live in Orange County, California, with their children, Shaya and JT, and their four dogs.

Amazing resource for working with students, especially those looking into making a difference through their God-given gifts and abilities.

Overall a good book for youth ministry! If it had a spiritual gifts test in it I would have given it five stars.

This is basically a remake of S.H.A.P.E. targeted to youth. Unfortunately it is rather thin on content and a stretch to call it a book. The font is very spaced, and large and there are many pages with no words at all. Many labored references to commercial establishments and pop culture in an effort to speak the language of its targeted group. "Non hip, can't pretend to be hip". The youth in our church did not respond very well to the content and they mostly were laughing at it which wasn't the intent. They are 14-18 years old so maybe it would work on 9 - 12 years old. I think there are more comprehensive study books for young adults to engage in and grow in their spiritual lives. There are some theological and biblical presumptions in this book that are debatable and mostly serve to support the premise of the idea that we are all gifted and want to find what those gifts are so we can be more effective in our world. The message itself is beautiful, but to assume it is the sole property of evangelical Christians is inaccurate. I think Rick Warren and Erik Rees have done very well with their book sales though marketing, but in this case, I would strongly suggest reading it before recommending it to a group. Maybe it will work well for you. It didn't for us. It is underwhelming as a book, and should at best be a leaflet or tract. I think our youth could have actually grasped the elementary message found in S.H.A.P.E. anyway. No more dumbing down was necessary. (or possible) I would be interested in reading other feedback.
