Synopsis

1879 “I will not do it,” Cassandra shouted. How could they expect her to marry a man she hadn’t even met? Well she would not do it, she would see that he ran away from here and left her alone. Forrest got out of the carriage and raised his eyes. The first thing they captured was the most stunning green eyes he had ever seen. Everyone was looking at him, but he found that his eyes could not stray from the beauty that stood a few feet away. She was a big woman, full of curves and promise and most attractive to him, but there was more. There was a fire in her eyes and the set of her jaw was almost a challenge. When Cassandra meets Forrest sparks fly, but they are not quite the ones he had hoped for. Cassie will do anything to make him leave but nothing goes to plan. Just when all seems lost can love be found in the heart of a fire or will the flames crash down on all their hopes? Customer Reviews

THIS WAS A VERY GOOD BOOK

I recommend this and all books by Indiana Wake. I haven 't read any that I wouldn't recommend.

I really enjoyed this book.

This was a cute story. Very simple, not much development of characters or plot. However, I find it very distracting to come upon a spelling, grammar or punctuation error on nearly every page!!! A little more attention to detail could really improve this story!

Very good

I love reading your book. It was very good. I look forward reading about her sister getting married. I would thought it would tell about the third sister getting married. Now I have to read that one. I looked forward to reading more of your books.

Not very good. Disappointed. Very subdued story. Will try another sister (book).

Great book 2 in this trilogy.Cassandra is still angry that their Aunt sold her like a piece of dry goods.She is finding out more everyday about her groom to be and figures out that he is a good and kind man.
