Peter MacDonald loves a good laugh, especially ones he can share with his children. He is committed to creating good clean fun in His series of joke books, "Best Joke Books For Kids". Peter is an Aussie with a good sense of Humour and he enjoys the good things in life, especially his church and family.

I have a 7 yr old grandson who loves jokes. He is pretty good at "getting it" so this joke book is right on the mark. Just the cover alone is hilarious, but the jokes inside are clean, funny and right on the target for 7-10yr olds. Be aware that it is a small book, something that is nice to stuff a stocking with or just to tuck in with another gift. You won't go wrong purchasing this for grandkids or to include in a birthday gift for a your child's playmate.

This is a good book for teachers to have on hand! I like that the jokes are all clean and most are going to be understood and enjoyed by students in 1st - 4th grade. Older students may groan at the jokes, but there are some zingers in the book. There are several typos in the book and some of the jokes are repeated, but that's okay (though it is why I gave it a 4 instead of a 5). I'll be tucking this book in my substitute bag and toting it around from now on. Love that there are math jokes...some of which are appropriate for high school students, too. My sister the math teacher (in HS) will be able to entertain her students with them.

My nephews loved these jokes in fact I heard him telling his brother a joke from the book What do cows get when they get sick Hay Fever... too funny. Great joke book for kids

I chose this rating because I thought this book was sooper funny. I didn't dislike this joke book at all I loved all of the clean jokes for kids. It was really inspiring. I honestly would recemend this book to anyone who likes jokes, because after reading this book you will love jokes and be inspired to right jokes like I was.

My 8 year old loves this - She has been telling us knock knock jokes for the past week!

Funny jokes to tell our 11 year old niece. We all laughed.

Great deal and my child loves it

Fun for 6 and 7 year olds
