Customer Reviews

I really enjoy reading Indiana Wake's books. The heroes are good men, the heroines are beautiful, strong women, and the villains are just begging for a punch in the nose. The plots are sometimes like a rollercoaster ride, and other times they make you want to reach into the story and slap one or the other upside the head to wake them up to the future that's standing right in front of them. All of these are sweet, clean romances. Sometimes there's a little sexual tension but it stops at the bedroom door and there is nothing graphic. I love these books and I could read them over and over again. In fact, I have.

I have really enjoyed reading these books. Indiana Wake makes her Mail Order Bride stories both interesting and tender. Very little violence and always a happy ending. For light, simple, relaxing reading these are the books to read if you like sweet simple stories.

First story about Loria 's dad gamble her off to David. He had children for her to take care of. She would not go without all her sisters. The next stories were about Loria's sisters and they found love. Then Sol and Ivy mother caused them all kind of problems. Last story was Garners ma cause him and lollie to get married. They were all good reads.

I enjoyed the concept of mail order brides but for me the stories were unrealistic and too rushed.

Could put downEnjoyed very muchWould recommend . Was nice the. Way families helped. Each other outWill read again

So many emotions, circumstances, and tragedies require ladies and gentlemen on opposite sides of our country to make scary decisions for their futures. Very stirring situations.

This box set features mail order brides going to the west. It shows that not all were good but love prevails. I found it very interesting. I would recommend this set.

Being a caregiver one does not have a lot of time to read a complete book. I have enjoyed all of the stories I have read. Special thanks to all the authors.
